

Thomas Keble School: Home-School Agreement

We believe that every child has the potential to succeed. A strong partnership between school, student and family is an essential foundation for this success. Our aim is to provide a rigorous and broad education so as to help develop well-qualified, self-confident, responsible, healthy and happy citizens, who can make a valuable contribution to their world. In order to achieve this:

The School will:	Students should:	Parents should:
